

To: Enck, Judith[Enck.Judith@epa.gov]
Cc: LaPosta, Dore[LaPosta.Dore@epa.gov]
From: Gorman, John
Sent: Fri 3/27/2015 3:47:00 PM
Subject: Re: St. John pesticides

The hospital reporting is usually a state requirement (DOH or Poison Control Center). It is not a FIFRA requirement. We are waiting for a call back from DPNR to see if it is required in VI. The VI does not generally share much information with NPIC, but NPIC is looking through their records for us.

> On Mar 27, 2015, at 10:55 AM, Enck, Judith <Enck.Judith@epa.gov> wrote:

>

> I am confident we did but isn't the hospital also required to report the poisonings?

>

> Sent from my iPhone

>

>> On Mar 27, 2015, at 7:00 AM, Gorman, John <Gorman.John@epa.gov> wrote:

>>

>> We reported a high level incident to OPP in accordance with established procedures. We will check on other Caribbean incidents, but we should have been notified if there were any. We will also check with NPIC to see if they received any inquiries.

>>

>>

>>

>>> On Mar 27, 2015, at 12:29 AM, Enck, Judith <Enck.Judith@epa.gov> wrote:

>>>

>>> Hi john. Plz check with the national pesticides hotline and find out if this St. John incident was ever reported. Further do they have caribbean cases reported in March. Of course that won't track tourists.

>>>

>>> Sent from my iPhone